

The Sheriff exits the building and appears on the TV in O'Brien's office. Max watches. ISAAC BRADFORD, 30s, reports live.

ISAAC BRADFORD
We're here live outside the Grundy police station with Sheriff Robert O'Brien...

SHERIFF O'BRIEN
You can just call me Bob.

ISAAC BRADFORD
Bob, it's been a whirlwind of a last 24 hours. If Mr. Mayhew is correct, an innocent man was executed. Do you have a response?

SHERIFF O'BRIEN
It would be a terrible tragedy - one that many people would have to live with for the rest of their lives.

ISAAC BRADFORD
Yes, but you were the arresting officer. Would you have a heightened sense of guilt.

O'Brien pauses for a second.

SHERIFF O'BRIEN
Absolutely.

A beat.

ISAAC BRADFORD
Do you believe Mr. Mayhew is right about the killer still being out there?

SHERIFF O'BRIEN
I hope he's not. However, Max Mayhew has had an illustrious career uncovering stories. He's no detective, but pretty darn close.

ISAAC BRADFORD
Are you officially re-opening the cold case of the disappearance of Benjamin Mayhew?

SHERIFF O'BRIEN

I will provide Mr. Mayhew with the full resources of our department, however, I cannot provide any uniformed officers to assist.

ISAAC BRADFORD

And just one last question for now, Sheriff. Does Mr. Mayhew have a suspect in mind?

O'Brien pauses for a moment.

SHERIFF O'BRIEN

I don't believe so, at this time.